

General News Notes From Various Points

The Anglo-French fleets have resumed the bombardment of the Aegean coast.

It is reported in naval quarters that Russian troops were landed at Varna, on the Black sea, last Friday.

Germans are building air ships with great speed especially for work in England, which they think has no means for countering their moves in the air.

France will not sign a peace agreement until after her restoration by right of victory and until she has obtained all guarantee of durable peace, said Premier Briand.

One hundred men are reported missing after a collision between the British auxiliary steamer Hythe and another British warship off the Gallipoli peninsula, in which the Hythe was sunk.

Repulse of the Austro-German fleet in the center of the Bosnian line with great losses is reported in an official Serbian communication received in Paris last Wednesday.

Mrs. Roland Holst, a Dutch Socialist, declares that the need of the poorer classes in Germany is terrible. Food riots are almost daily occurrences.

Commissioner Black, of the Yukon, has asked the minister of militia permission to raise half of a regiment in the Yukon. Mr. Black may temporarily retire from his present duties in order to serve at the front.

The British troops which were landed at Salonika, are said by the Havas News Agency's correspondent there to have received orders from London to depart for the Serbian front. The correspondent adds that a junction with Serbian troops already has been effected.

The Turkish war office announced a "terrible bombardment" by the enemy on the Gallipoli peninsula, it having crept in trenches on the Turkish left wing. The official statement says a heavy bombardment by the enemy at other points, assisted by two monitors, occurred.

Thomas Addis and Ralph K. Blair, both of San Francisco, convicted of violating the neutrality of the United States by conspiring to hire and retain men in this country for the British army, were fined $1,000 each in the United States district court. No prison sentence was imposed.

A new Anglo-French expedition to the Balcans is announced by the Berlin Tageblatt. This newspaper publishes a telegram from Sofia stating that British and French transports with troops have appeared off Kavala, Greece.

The pope is determined not to support any initiative to peace obviously inspired by the Austro-Germans unless assured there is a possibility that the allies are favorable to a consideration of proposals. The official statement says he is determined to abstain from any peace negotiations which are foredoomed to failure.

Among the London morning papers which have been the most severe critics of the government, the Post has the strongest antagonist. The Mail confines itself to the claim that Mr. Asquith conceded several points which "had been constantly pressed upon in our columns."

The London Post says it has learned that Roumania has decided the prices of cereals, for export, shall be double those for home consumption and that payment must be made in gold. An order for the commandeering of all flour in Hungary went into effect last Tuesday, according to a Berne dispatch.

Newfoundland voted yesterday on a bill prohibiting the importation, sale or manufacture of intoxicating liquor within its borders. It will be several days before the result of the poll will be known but the temperance people appear confident of victory. A majority of 35,000 is necessary to pass the bill.

Secretary Robert Lansing announced recently that the navy department had definitely established the fact that the fragment of the engine of a war ship which sunk the Atlas liner Hesperian was a part of a torpedo. The German government has persistently denied that the Hesperian was torpedoed. In the opinion of the United States naval experts the fragment could not have been a part of a mine mine.

Standardizing Canadian Eggs

From present indications it would appear that one of the most important developments to date in the improvement of the Canadian egg trade was the action taken by the Canadian Produce Association last winter in adopting definite standards for Canadian eggs.

Hitherto each market and in most markets each dealer had a system of grading peculiar to his own trade. This resulted in needless confusion to the consumer and great difficulty was experienced at times on the part of the producer in finding a satisfactory market for his product.

At a number of exhibitions where no extensive classes for eggs have been offered, the Live Stock Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture has made a display of eggs graded in accordance with the standards and in each instance has supplemented the display with actual demonstrations, in a candling booth specially designed for the purpose, of the way in which eggs of the various grades appear when candled.

Three general classes for eggs are provided under the standards, viz: "Fresh gathered," "Storage" and "Cracked and Dirty." Four grades are provided in the first class, three in the second and two in the third.

The grades in the "fresh gathered" class are "specials," "extras," "No. 1" and "No. 2." The grade "specials" is omitted from the "storage" class and both specials and extras from the class for "cracked and dirty."

"Specials" according to the standards, are eggs of uniform size, weighing over 24 ounces to the dozen or over 43 pounds net to the 30 dozen case; absolutely clean, strong and sound in shell; air cell small, not over 5-16 of an inch in depth; white of egg firm and clear and yolk dimly visible, free from blood spots.

"Extras" are eggs of good size, weighing at least 24 ounces to the dozen or 43 pounds net to the 30 dozen case; clean, sound in shell; air cell less than 5/16 of an inch in depth; white of egg firm, and yolk slightly visible.

No. 1's are eggs weighing at least 22 ounces to the dozen or 41 pounds net to the 30 dozen case; clean, sound in shell; air cell less than 1/2 inch in depth; white of egg reasonably firm; yolk visible but not stuck to the egg or seriously out of place.

No. 2's are eggs clean, sound in shell; may contain weak watery eggs with heavy yolks, and all other eggs sound in shell and fit for food.

Consumers in order to protect themselves in the matter of purchasing eggs should acquaint themselves with these standards and the above definitions of the grades. Only by creating a demand for certain grades of eggs will the supply be forthcoming, and the demand can come only with a thorough knowledge on the part of the consumer as to what constitutes the various grades.

Producers too, would do well to more systematically grade their eggs before marketing, and knowing definitely what they have in hand thereby be in a better position to demand a price commensurate with the quality supplied.
